

COURT ORDER

Issued by The Common Law Court of Justice of the Republic of Kanata

ORDER ABOLISHING COVID RESTRICTIONS AND OTHER UNLAWFUL MEASURES

THE COURT DECLARES that the statutory regulations in Canada that restrict free movement and association, impose mandatory quarantines and distancing, and require the wearing of masks are unlawful, unwarranted and medically unsound measures that violate the fundamental liberties, health and security of the people.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED BY THE COURT that these measures have no authority and are declared to be null and void, and that no one is obligated or required to comply with the said measures.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED BY THE COURT that anyone who attempts to enforce these unlawful measures on others is violating this COURT ORDER and is engaged in a criminal conspiracy against the liberty and wellbeing of the people, and as one engaged in a crime is subject to penalties and imprisonment upon conviction.

Issued by the Common Law Court of Justice of the Republic of Kanata and its lawful jurisdiction within the territories of the former Dominion of Canada, on the Seventeenth Day of August in the year 2020.

This Order has the full effect and force of the Law.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'A. Hayward', written over a horizontal line.

Andrew L. Hayward LL.M., Presiding Magistrate
Case Docket Number 08142020-001

Establish Liberty

Republic of Kanata

The Common Law Court of Justice of the Republic of Kanata
Criminal Trial Division